

For your safety, our hotel informs you of exceptional instructions to be observed during your stay

Make sur to respect the safety distance with the customers and collaborators of the hotel (1.50 meters minimum).

Disinfect both hands regularly with soap and water or hydroalcoholic gel.

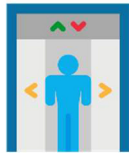

Avoid touching the reception desk and common areas of the hotel.

Do not park in the common areas to work or chat, please go directly to your room.

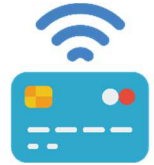

Follow and respect the specially designed markings to avoid meeting other customers.

Elevator: limited persons per elevator so as to respect social distancing

Check out: please put your room key at the check-out in the bin provided for this purpose on your departure.

We recommend the use of the credit card for any transaction.

Particular care is taken to disinfect each room.

If you feel unwell during your stay: please contact reception from your room who will tell you what to do.

Room staff will not provide daily cleaning of occupied rooms. Please call reception for extra clean linen.

The daily room cleaning service of occupied rooms is not available. Please contact reception for any further information.

The room service is not available.