HER HAND IN MARRIAGE WAS GIVEN,
IN EXCHANGE FOR A BOUNTIFUL
PIECE OF VIETNAMESE KINGDOM.
CENTURIES LATER, THE PRINCESS LIVES ON IN MEMORIES
AND LEGENDS, AS DO THE CHARM AND CUSTOMS OF HER
FASCINATING LAND. FISHERMEN STILL ROW BASKETS OVER
TEEMING WATERS AS SALT FIELDS OFFER UP THEIR HARVEST; AND FARMERS THEIR PLUMPEST DRAGON FRUIT.
BE USHERED INTO A REALM WHERE YOU CAN ENTER A WORLD OF YOUR OWN. WHERE EVERY LENGTH IS TAKEN TO FULFILL YOUR WANTS
AND WHIMS. AND THE ONLY PROTOCOL TO FOLLOW, IS TO FOLLOW YOUR HEART.

Designed by Nick Faldo and a "Finest Golf Clubs of the World" member, the par 72, 18-hole links course delivers challenging holes and impressive sea views. Sprawling across the sand dunes of Cape Mui Ne, relatively new Sea Links Golf and Country Club already ranks as one of Vietnam's most striking and challenging courses. Both clubs are less than an hour's drive away.

PHAN THIET

Founded 1933 by the French Governor of Indochina, Phan Thiet today is still essentially a traditional fishing port. The brightly coloured fishing trawlers and bustling fish markets at the harbour are a photographer's dream. Leisurely explore other city sights by pedicab.

PO SHA NU TOWER

Perched on a hill and markedly visible for miles, three Cham towers date back to the eighth century - architectural remains of the ancient and mystical Champa Kingdom that once dominated the region for hundreds of years.

TA CU NATURE RESERVE

Take a short hike or cable car ride through rainforests teeming with exotic birdlife to the top of Ta Cu Mountain. The peak is home to a pagoda and largest reclining Buddha in Southeast Asia. From here, you can appreciate panoramic views of the distant mountains and coastline.

CAPE MUI NE

Within an impressive arc of golden sands stretching 16km, Cape Mui Ne has long been a strong fishing community. Nowadays, it's also Vietnam's fastest growing beach resort destination and premier kite and windsurfing hub. Mui Ne is also famed for its spectacular Red Dunes, White Dunes and Lotus Lake, plus Fairy Springs - a picturesque stream flanked by red canyons.
